

Nutritioning Oil

This silky soft skin care oil brings back skin's natural moisture levels and nurtures even the most delicate skin. Ideal as a serum or night treatment, Nutritioning Oil makes dry skin come alive. Meadowfoam Seed Oil is the most stable vegetable oil and rich in antioxidants. It prevents moisture loss and provides an excellent cushion feeling on the skin. Due to its own high stability, it keeps up the stability and activity of the other reactive ingredients. Alphaflow® work as a photostable and hypoallergenic emollient. It is pure and non-irritating adding moisturizing benefits for even the most delicate skin and soft lubricity to the formulation.
